

cshappard@abcbirds.org
10/17/18

Congratulations to D.C.'s Anne Lewis and City Wildlife! The D.C. Convention Center, especially a building connector, was identified by their monitoring program as a collisions hotspot. Anne had a series of meetings with building managers and the Convention Center recently installed a Solyx bird safety film, as seen here. City Wildlife will continue to monitor this site, so we'll have before/after data.

